OSCAR GRAU

BY OSCAR GRAU

VIANA CASTRILLON

Viviana Castrillón was born in Medellín, Colombia, January 13th. Like a good "Paisa" she was into sports and dance since she was very young, becoming part of several dance groups.
Although she got into several beauty pageants as a little girl, more so to please her father than anything else, she never thought in becoming a famous model. Her modeling career begun by mistake or by pure coincidence, as she says.

When she graduated from college as a Publicist, she decided to travel to Bogotá thanks to a work proposal. There, she accompanied a friend to a casting, but the director asked her why isn't she in the modeling group? She refused several times because at that moment she had brackets, making her feel very uncomfortable since she didn't like to smile at all.
The director insisted so much that ended up convincing her. Big was her surprise when the next day they called to tell her she had been the model selected for that modeling campaign among thousands of model from all the country. That's how the modeling career of Viviana Castrillón began.

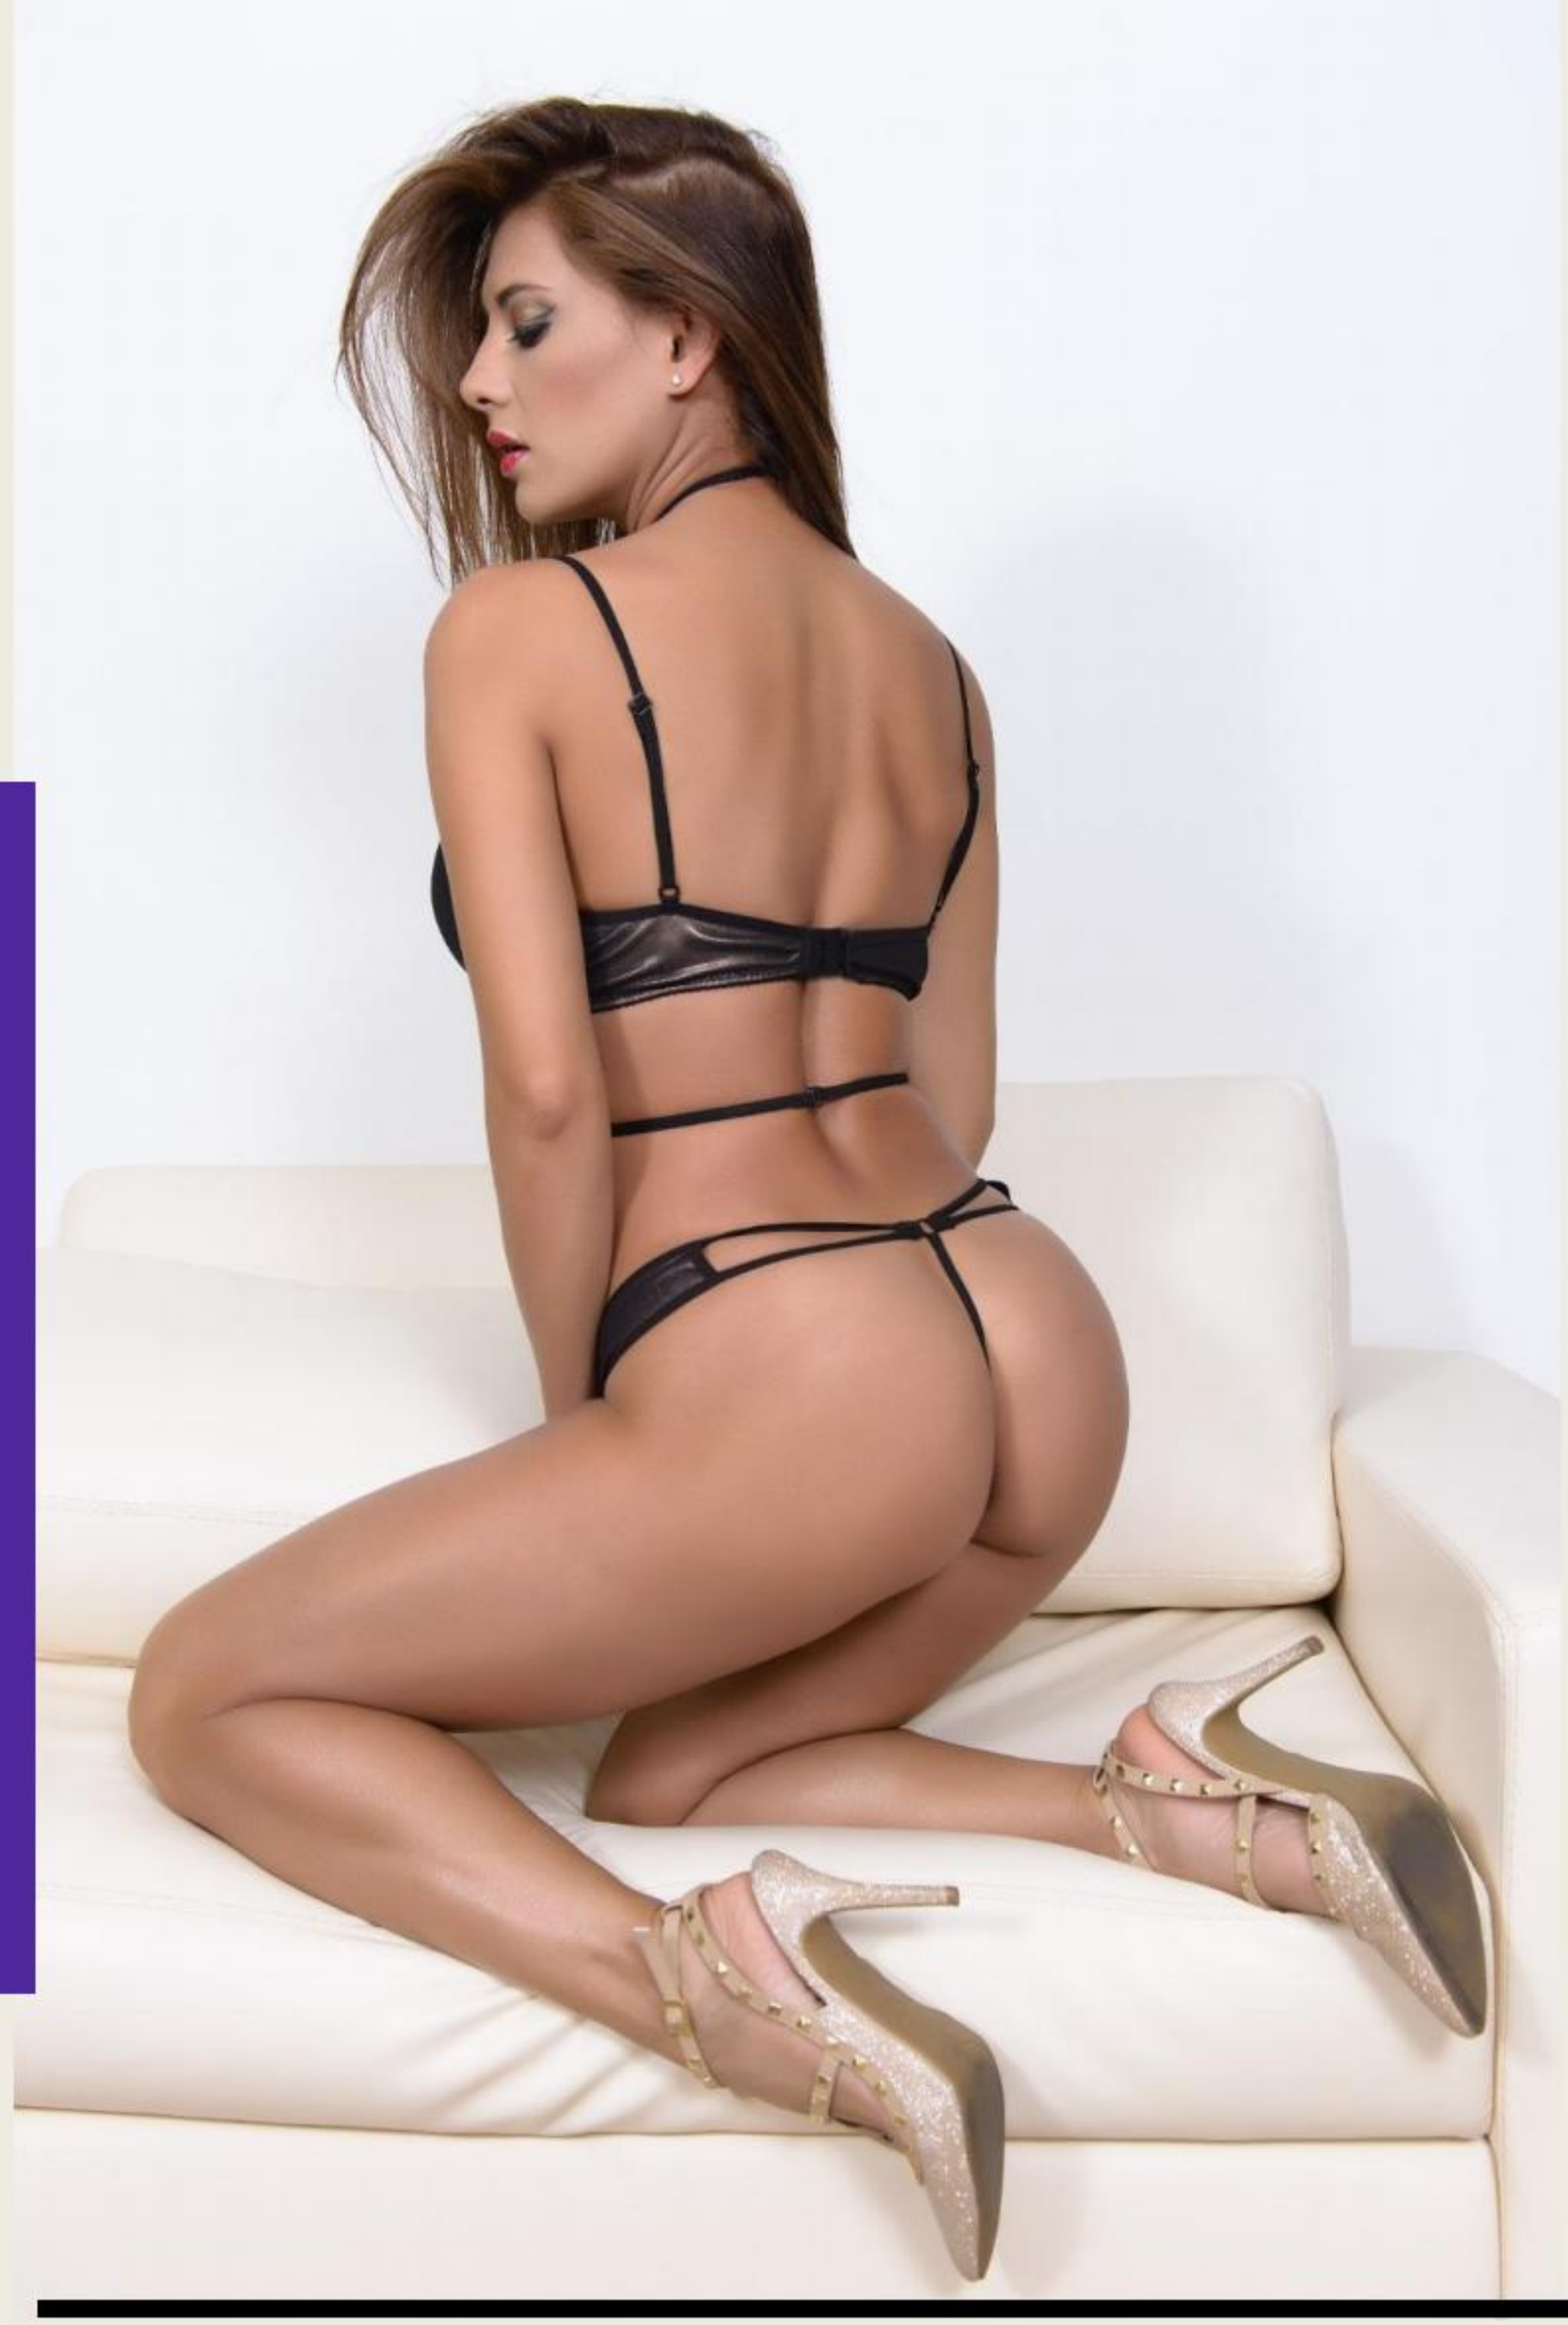
2016 LAMAGOLD JUNIUD 2016

She's been the image of many renowned national and international brands. But after just a year of modeling, Viviana was called among many models to be part of the famous contest Miss Playboy TV.

That international contest was making its selection of Miss Playboy TV Colombia, and the winner would represent the country in the international contest.

Viviana was the winner among hundreds of models of several agencies, making her the representative for Colombia in Uruguay for Miss Playboy TV Latin America. Viviana got 2nd place in that one but just days after it, the winner, Miss Spain, was deprived of its crown and Viviana takes her place.

Due to winning, Viviana signs a millionaire contract with Playboy TV for a year, which extended for almost 5 years, where she made several programs for the channel, and presented many others, being the image of the channel and travelling all over the world.



That's how "VC Dreams Luxury Lingerie" was born, now being a solid brand and very known in Colombia. VC DREAMS is a brand theme, where you can find everything that's needed for a romantic night. The speciality of the brand is women underwear. Vivi designs her own line but the boutique also offers different brands to its clients. You can also find candles with pheromones, body creams, bedsheets, erotic toys of the highest class and fragrances among other things. Vivi decides to disconnect herself for a while from modeling and from being a public figure to be able to devote and focus on developing her enterprise. However, a few years later she meets a renowned sports businessman (who is now her manager and husband) and he convinces her to return to modeling and reactivate the brand "Vivi Castrillón". A brand that although for her was now part of the past, for her followers and her most loyal fans was still very alive.

Without a doubt Viviana Castrillón was an icon of sensuality and sexuality, more than a brand.
After returning to modeling actively, her social networks also reactivated in an amazing way. Vivi creates her first Instragram account which in just 2 months got to have over 75 thousand followers. That account was stolen after Vivi was victim of a trap. However she begun a new from scratch again, knowing that her followers would follow her again.

And her bet was very accurate. Vivi currently has four INSTRAGRAM accounts. Three for personal use and one for her company.
1) @vivicastrillon1.official
2) @vivicastrillon1
3) @vivicastrillon1.tips
4) @boutiquevcdreams

According to several media that wrote or reported about Viviana and her current life, Viviana is the 4th or 5th most followed colombian in Instagram, only with the sort of persons like Shakira and Sofia Vergara above her. The amazing of this is that she made this without being every day on television or in the media like many of her competitors. She made this with a clear strategy and a defined market goal. Viviana has not abandoned her businesswoman side and together with her husband has decided to make the brand grow to the point where by this 2016 will be found in several states of the US. In march they'll move to Miami where Viviana will follow her modeling career and now also her anchorwoman career. She's NOT a SEXOLOGIST, as she clearly states it to anyone seeking her help, but she did become an expert on the subject thanks to all she's read about, studied and obviously all she's lived in her life and years of experience with PLAYBOY.

Photography: Oscar Grau, Assistant: Catherine Salas Duque, Image: María Isabel Diaz, Dresses & Accessories: VC Dreams,

This combination is what makes Vivi so unique and this is why Playboy TV comes back to her once again in 2015 to offer her a program totally customized for her and her likes. Vivi will be recording her program in Buenos Aires, Argentina, at the end of February. The program will air at mid June and will be televised to the entire world. Vivi has not abandoned her businesswoman side and together with her husband has decided to make the brand grow to the point where by this 2016 will be found in several states of the US.

In march they'll move to Miami where Viviana will follow her modeling career and now also her anchorwoman career. Truly an amazing woman that does not stop to surprise us not only because of her beauty but also for her talent to reinvent herself and service to others.

We want to know a bit about your personality. How would you define yourself?
I define myself as a friendly and very sociable person. I consider myself a very happy person and grateful to life, that's why I think I'm always smiling. I consider myself as a very open minded and extremely sexual person. That's why I promote so much from my social networks and in my boutique the "NO TO MONOTONY IN THE COUPLE" and to enjoy the wholeness of your sexuality but with MUCH RESPONSIBLY.

Virtues (besides physical ones)
I consider myself tolerant, loving, generous, very creative and, above all, very, very confident of myself.

And any little defect...?
Of course, many, but is better don't share them, I try to change them or, at least, improve them.

Something that you always carry in your bag that you cannot leave home without it.
Glitter, perfume and keys.

How do you dress in a normal day?
I like to dress in a comfortable but still sexy style. It's part of my nature so I always end up dressing like that. The good thing is that so far I haven't received complains about it.

What can you always find in your closet?
I'd never end a list for you. But clearly as an underwear designer, what you can find most in my closet definitely is lingerie. And I can tell you 98% are garments designed by me.

What part of your body makes you feel prouder?
I think my legs. I work really hard at the gym to be in form, but days of working out legs and butt I do it even harder.

You're a woman that catches the eye wherever you go. Tell us about any curious situation that may have happened to you in the street.

As a public figure you really get to have several weird or funny occurrences in the street. I live very grateful to my followers because I've never had an awkward situation because of disrespect or something like that.

I remember in particular a situation in Miami where I was in a restaurant with my partner and the waiter came to tell me that some people in table number 10 were my fans. That they were from Italy and were vacationing, they didn't speak english or spanish very well but if it was possible that I could give them an autograph.

I told the waiter that sure, no problem, how many people or how many autographs would they need. He smiled and told me that the problem was that they were 6 couples and all of them wanted an autograph. To me, my partner supports me in everything and bears all my follies so I told him that I was gonna be away for a minute or so to say hi to all the followers.

One of the ladies told me that they didn't want to bother me since they knew I was having diner but if it was possible to instead of signing an autograph for each one of them I could give them underwear and sign it and they'd raffle it among them. They were willing to pay me for the daringness and my garment. I said that I wasn't carrying panties around (which was true) but I'd gladly give them my signed bra. I don't know if they wanted to test me to see what I'd answer them but I went to the bathroom, I removed my bra, which was a design of mine, and signed it for them.

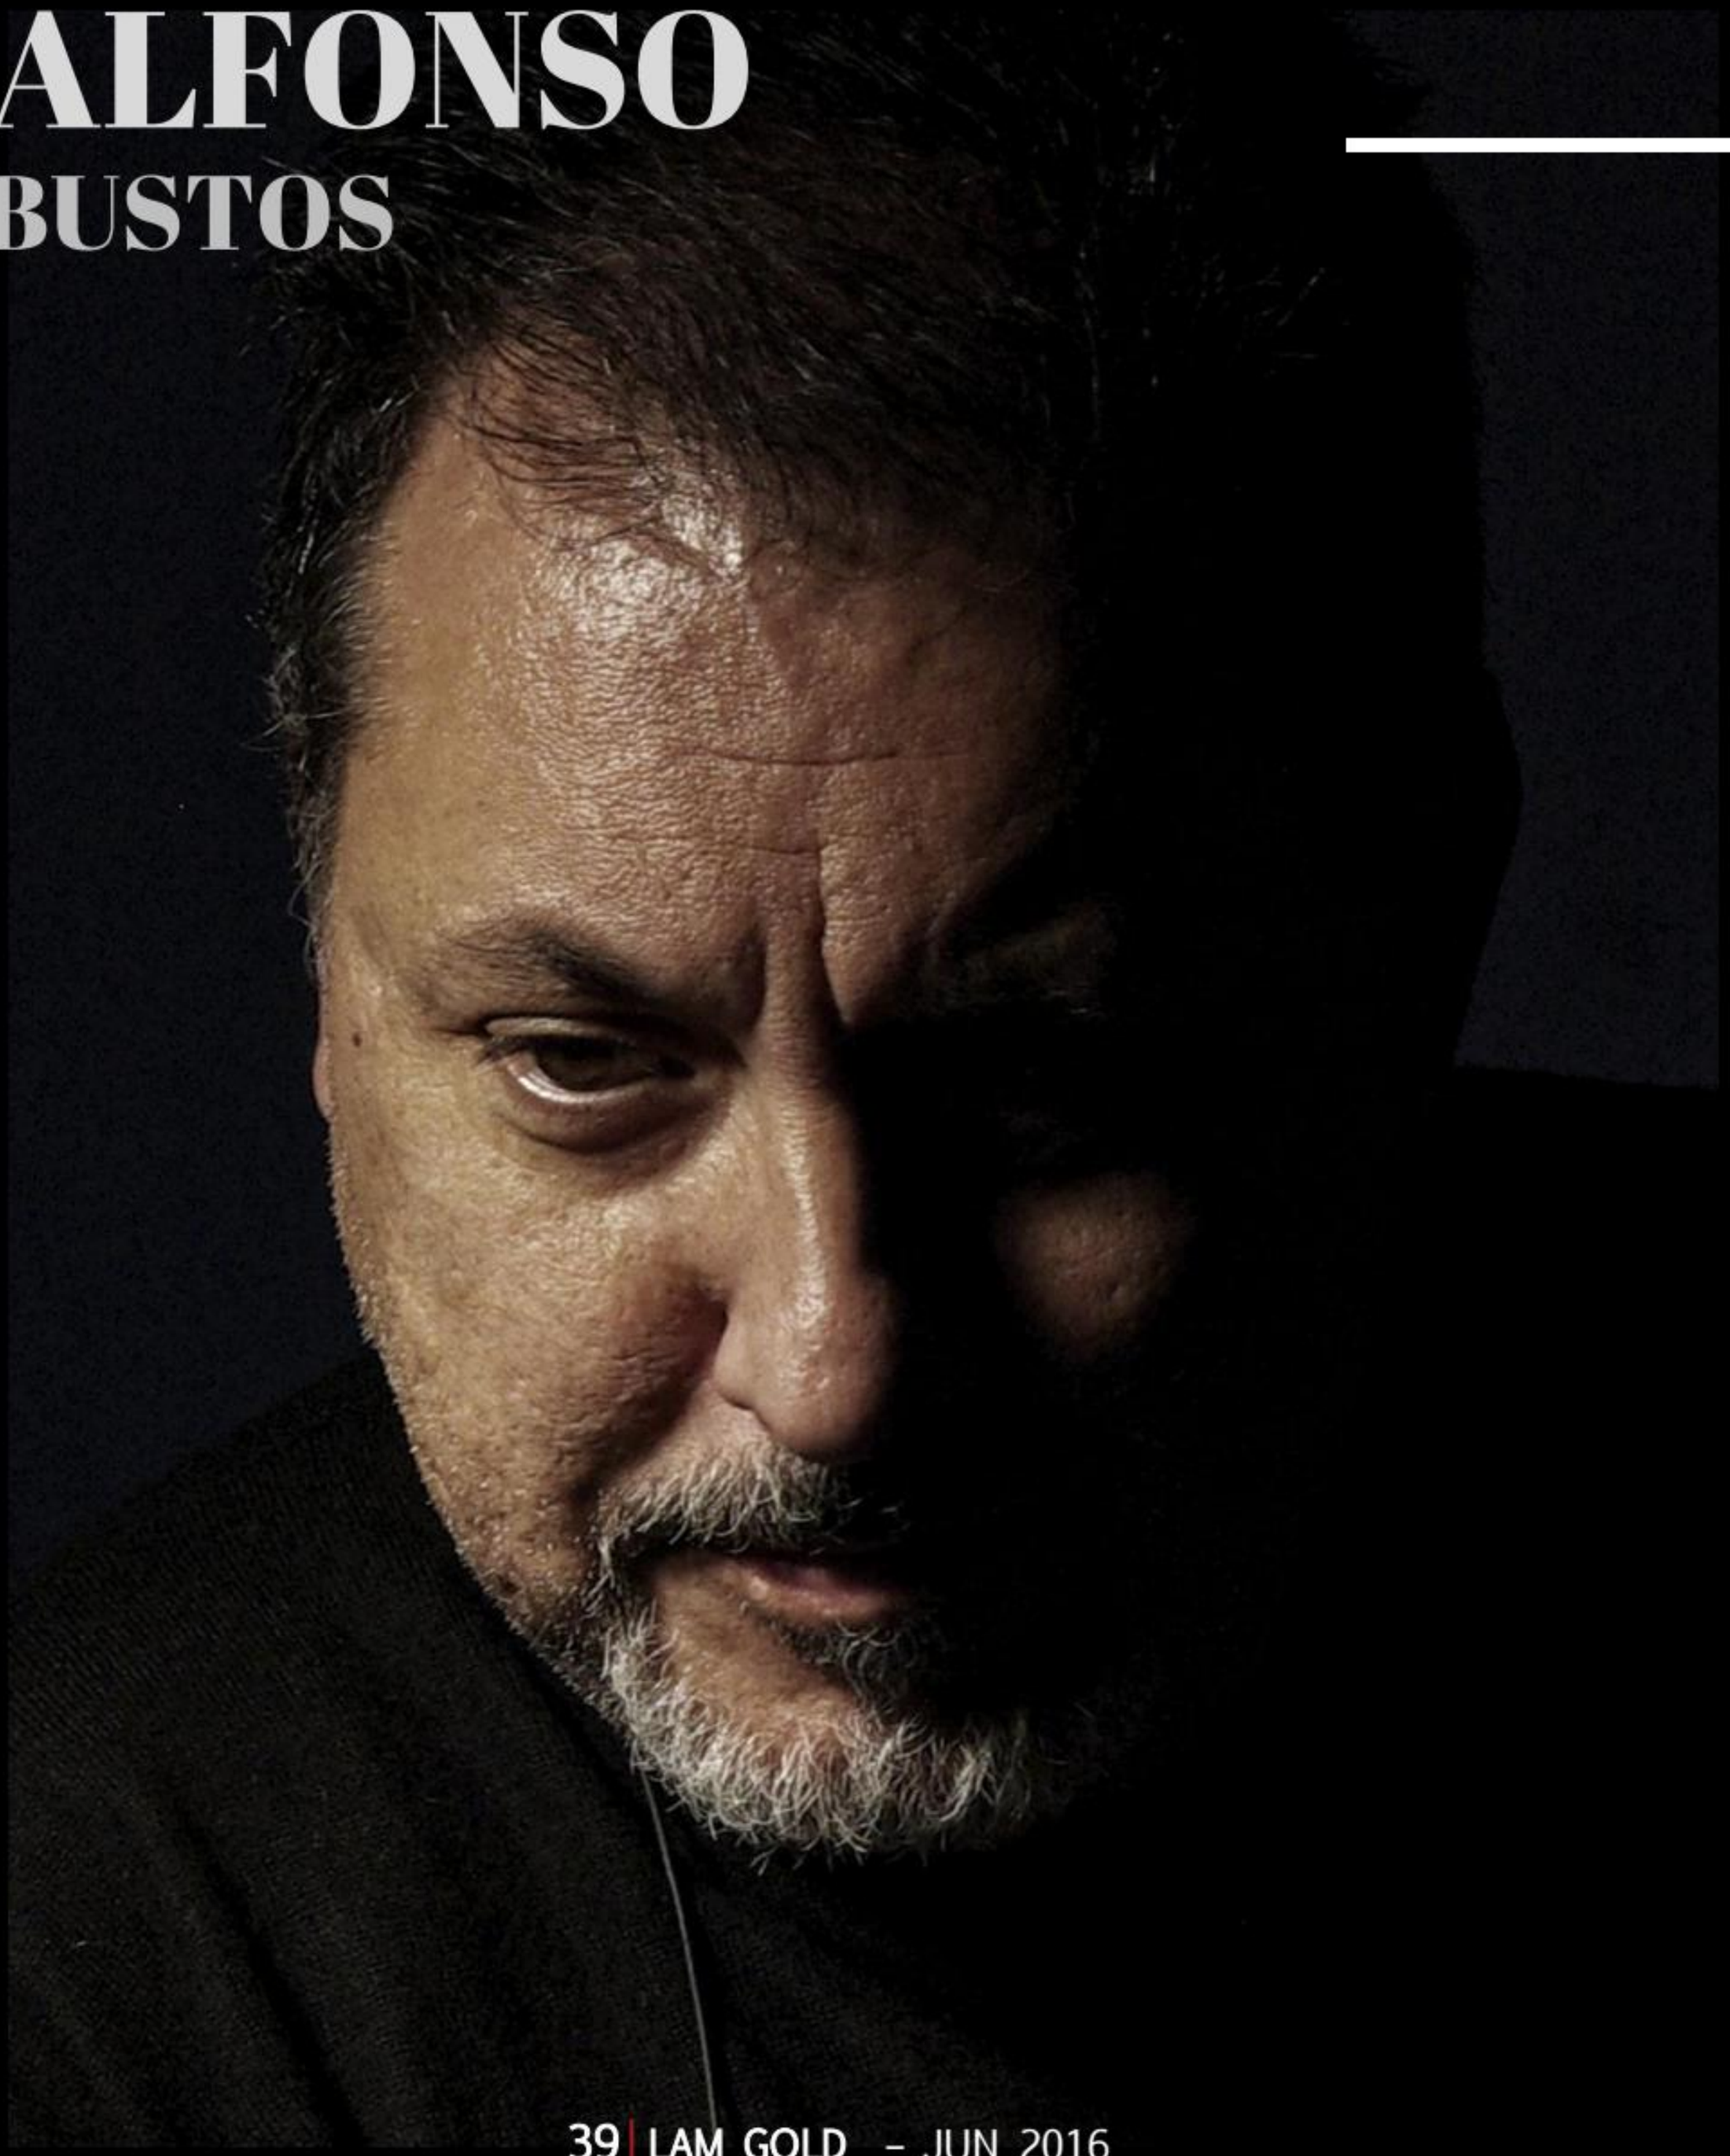
Madrilenian and with 25 years old. The fact of show up in LAM GOLD is already a personal success for me. I've always been the ugly duckling, the focus of all possible criticism due to an overweight who accompanied me through 21 years. 100 kilograms overweight, but always with a smile.
I love the world of fitness; it changed my life both personally and occupationally. The gym is my daily motivation and my desire to improve and get the best possible version of myself. I studied Marketing and a Bachelor of Business Administration; I'm currently studying a master of corporate communications and strategic business consulting.
I consider myself a person with a desire for improvement, certainly in my vocabulary doesn't exist the phrase "I can't", there is always a way to reach our goals, but giving up won't never be an option.
I consider myself a person with a desire for improvement, certainly in my vocabulary doesn't exist the phrase "I can't", there is always a way to reach our goals, but give up won't never be an option.

In my life the effort and discipline are constant values and they allow me to change my dreams for goals no matter what they cost. Photography certainly succeeds in making me realize about my changes, It let me see the woman who I really am instead of what I see in the mirror's reflection being that I had been overweight and that's why low self-esteem and insecurity are constant travel companions. So I want to thank Alfonso Bustos and his team for the fantastic humane treatment and work done. No doubt I'll take this kind of sensuous photographic style, but in my opinion the basis of all sensuality is the desire.

PHOTOGRAPHER

ALFONSO BUSTOS



Tell us about yourself. How do you define yourself?
I define myself as a simple, impulsive person and with a desire to beat myself daily. I'm disciplined, consistent and always go ahead with a smile.
What are your measurements?
Currently they are: 100-70-90
What kind of photography is the one that you feel most comfortable?

Actually I feel pretty comfortable with any kind of photography, but if I had to choose I stay with fitness style and a more sensual style. I never thought being naked in front of a camera could feel so comfortable.

What is your best virtue?
Discipline and the impulse when I do something.
What must never fail on your closet?
My closet looks like Narnia's closet, I need to have everything but my essentials are good tight leggings, shorts and a tight sexy dress.

How would be your perfect romantic evening?
My perfect romantic night would be a dinner on the beach in the moonlight and finish in the typical dreamy hotel room, and the next day when I wake up I want to don't know if I'm still dreaming or is the reality.
And... What kind of men do you like?
I like independent men who are self-sufficient and intelligent. I'm very attracted to men who knows how to act in any situation and who treat me like a princess.

Also is essential they share and accept my lifestyle, a man who doesn't exercise, automatically loses my interest.

Are you the type who only looks at the physique or are you looking for something more in a man?

All who are dedicated to this world know that the physique is volatile and can be modified, so for me it's essential but not enough. I'm looking for much more than that, I need someone who makes me laugh, who I can have any kind of conversation and rouse my attention daily. I know it's selfish but it's very important that they should be attentive and they need to worry about my happiness.

What kind of man is your ideal?

My ideal man is one that causes with his smile my best smile. Physically, a body with a large volume and muscle. If he has both things he's my ideal man, and luckily I have him on my side. I forgot, he should be an animal lover, it's vital for me.

And what are your weapons to seduce him?

My weapon of seduction (the ones about I can tell) are simple. Show me as I really am, make him feel unique and special every moment and show him every day that I'm the person who he should be with. In private I love to show my sexy side and drive him crazy.

You have many virtues, but do you have a little defect?

My worst defect is being impulsive and proud, It's hard for me give in, even when I know I'm not right.

What part of your body makes you feel prouder?

Overall I'm proud of my body, having achieved this physique after having been so overweight for me is more than pride and that's why I exercise every day in the gym and I care my diet in detail.

Have you ever felt bothered by some compliment or situation?
The truth is that on several occasions, but more shame made me feel because I couldn't believe the situation. It was on a highway, a car followed me for more than 10 km, getting ahead, standing next to me and pulling out his mobile by the window, it was too surreal.

We would like to know, how should we conquer a beauty like you?
Honestly it's not easy to conquer me, if you are looking for something easy you can start forgetting me. I need much delicacy, you need to make me feel special in every second and fight for me always, the first, second, third and every day of the year, if not, forget me.

Tell us a little secret that you have and you can tell
If I tell, it wouldn't be a secret, but okay a little confession is I can't stand the sound of people chewing, especially when I'm in strict diet.

In love how do you define yourself?
Passionate, sensual and romantic, and I especially love to surprise and never settle down.

Which part of your body makes you go from 0 to 100?
Undoubtedly the neck, I'm like a Ferrari there, I go from 0 to 100 in a second (laughs).

Do you like to take the reins in a relationship?
I like to keep track, but not totally the reins, because I like challenges and it would be too easy (laughs), yeah I know I love complicate things but that's the way I am.

And in bed? Undress yourself or get undressed?
It depends on the moment, but I prefer him to get me undressed and if is done slowly, even better.

Do you have any fantasy to do?

No, fantasies are to be accomplished, and I'm too impatient to wait to perform them. If I can think of any, I need to do it, I can't stand to wait.

What plans do you have for the future?

I have so many plans in mind that I would need an entire magazine to tell you. In the short term I want to improve my physique, finish the Master I'm studying of consulting and strategic communication and get achievements in my current job at Johnson Fitness. I have also several closed photo sessions wishing to perform them.

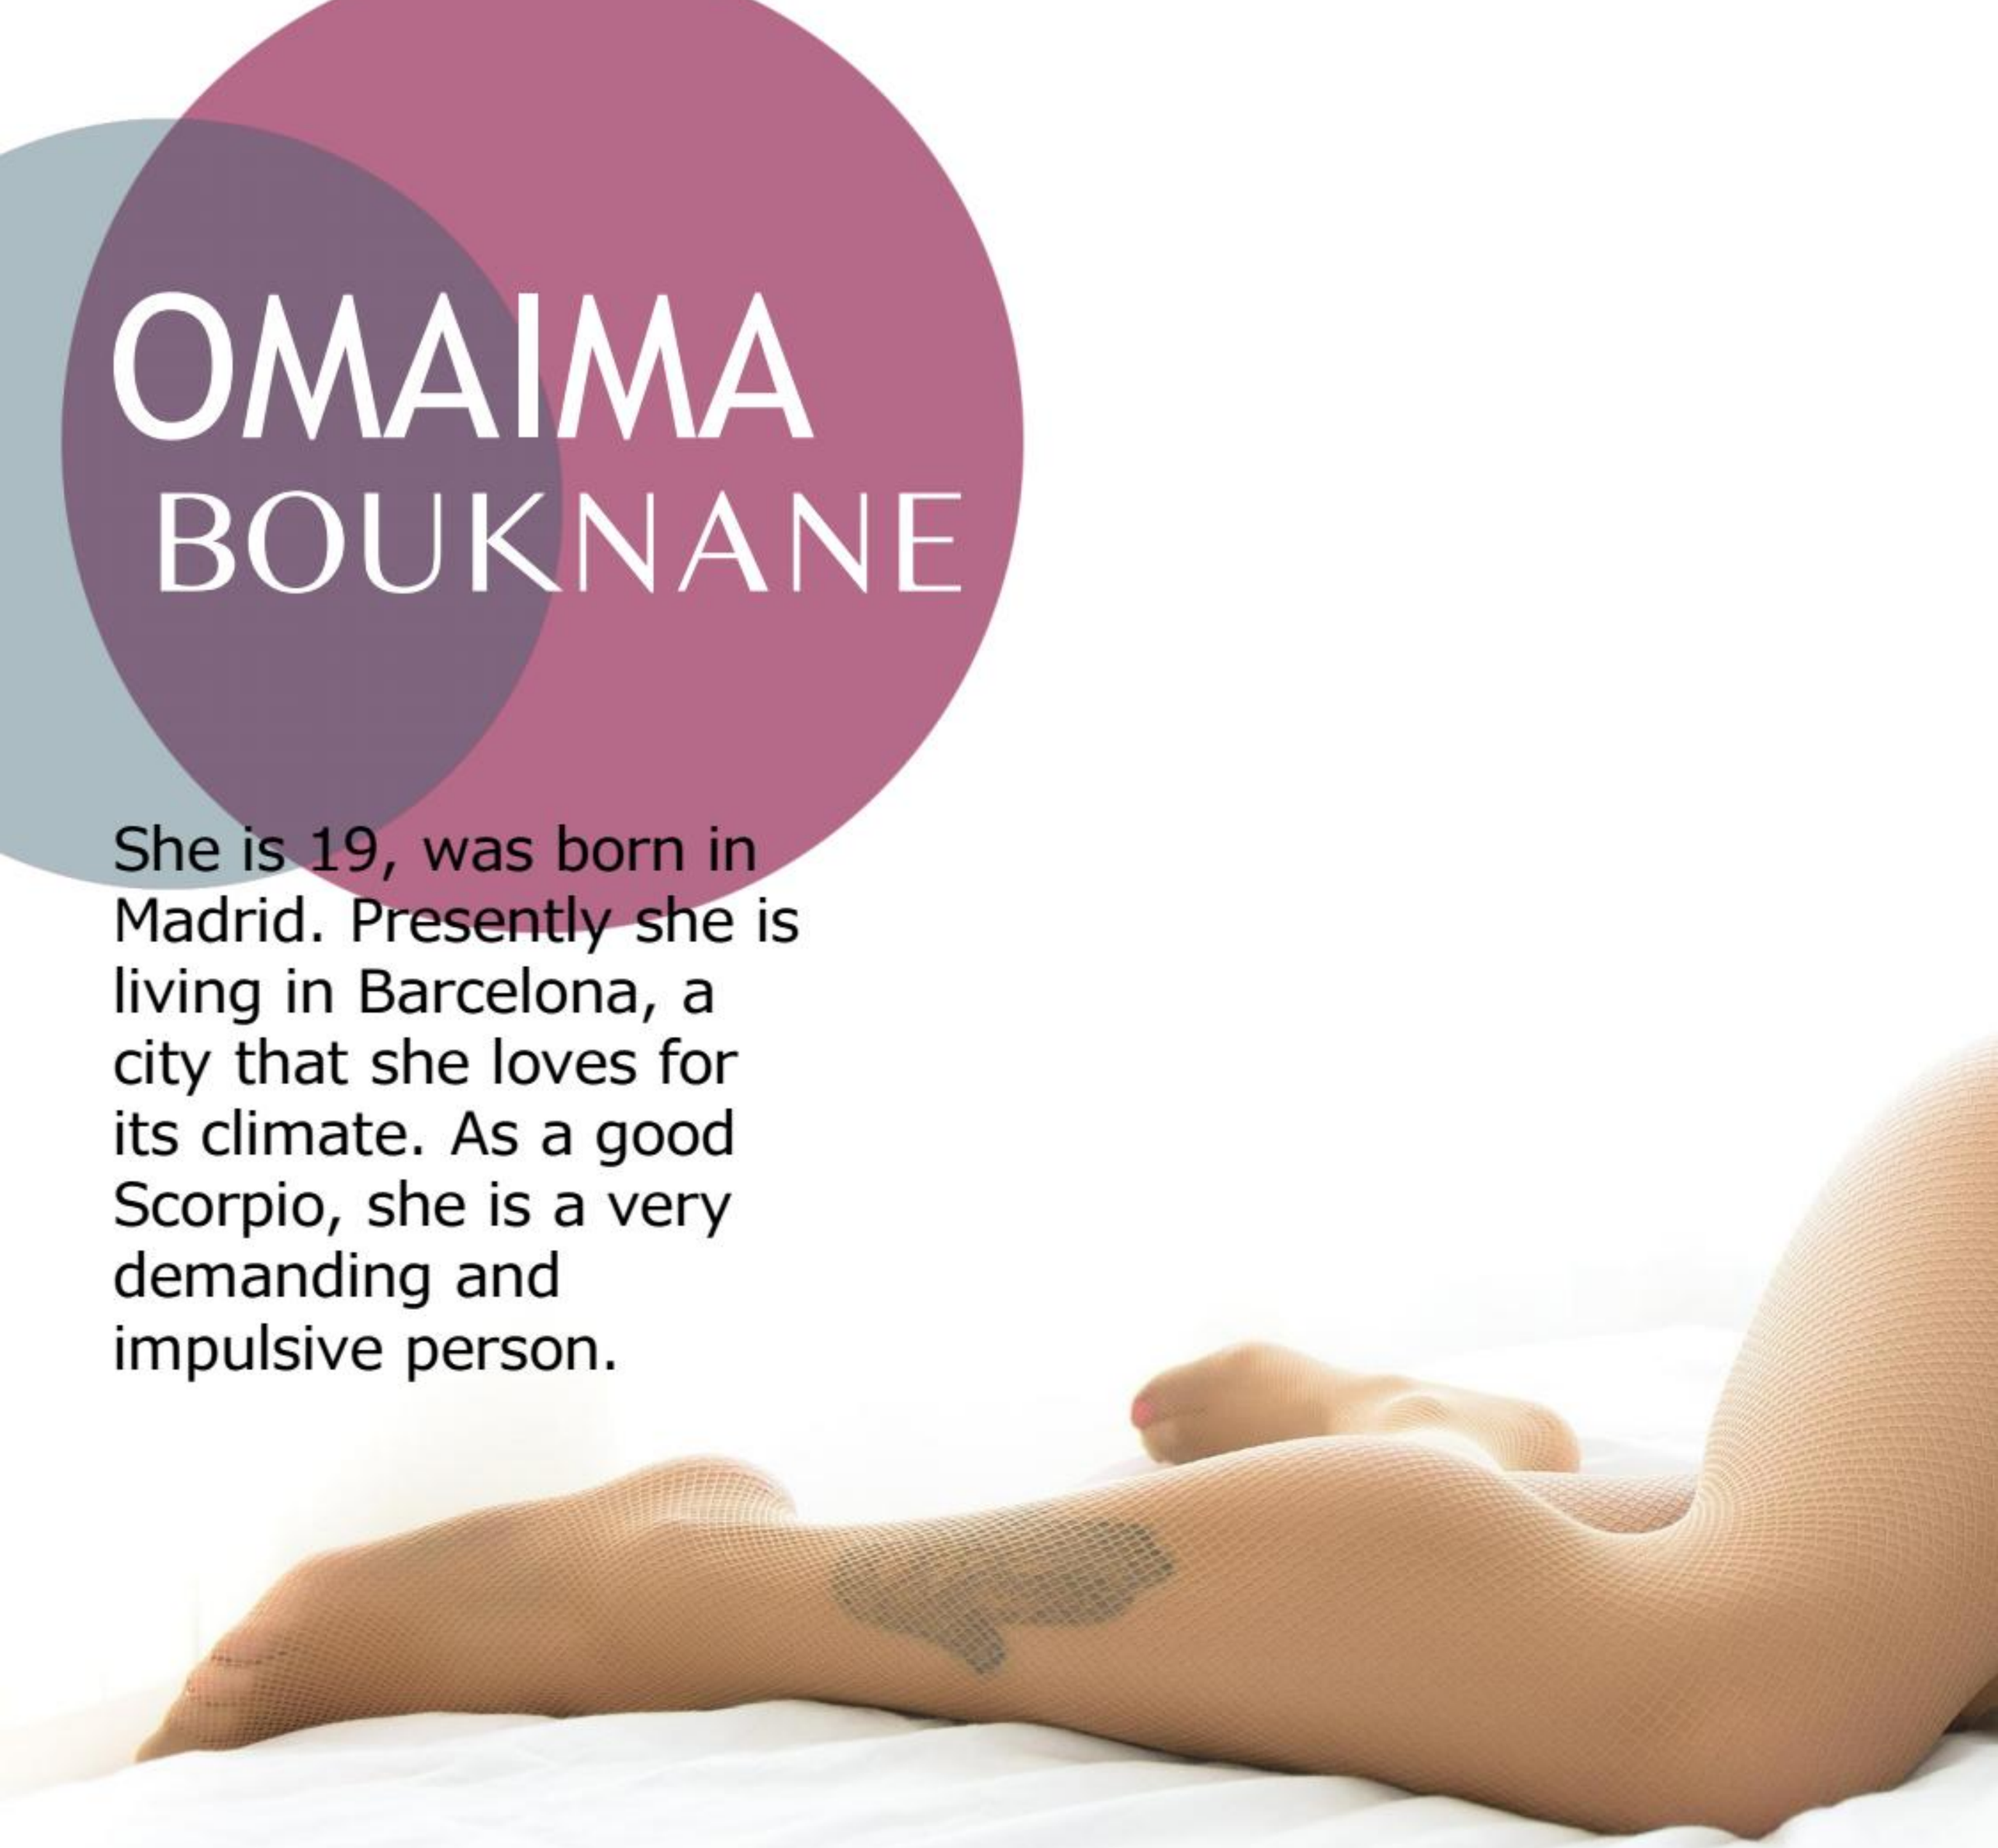
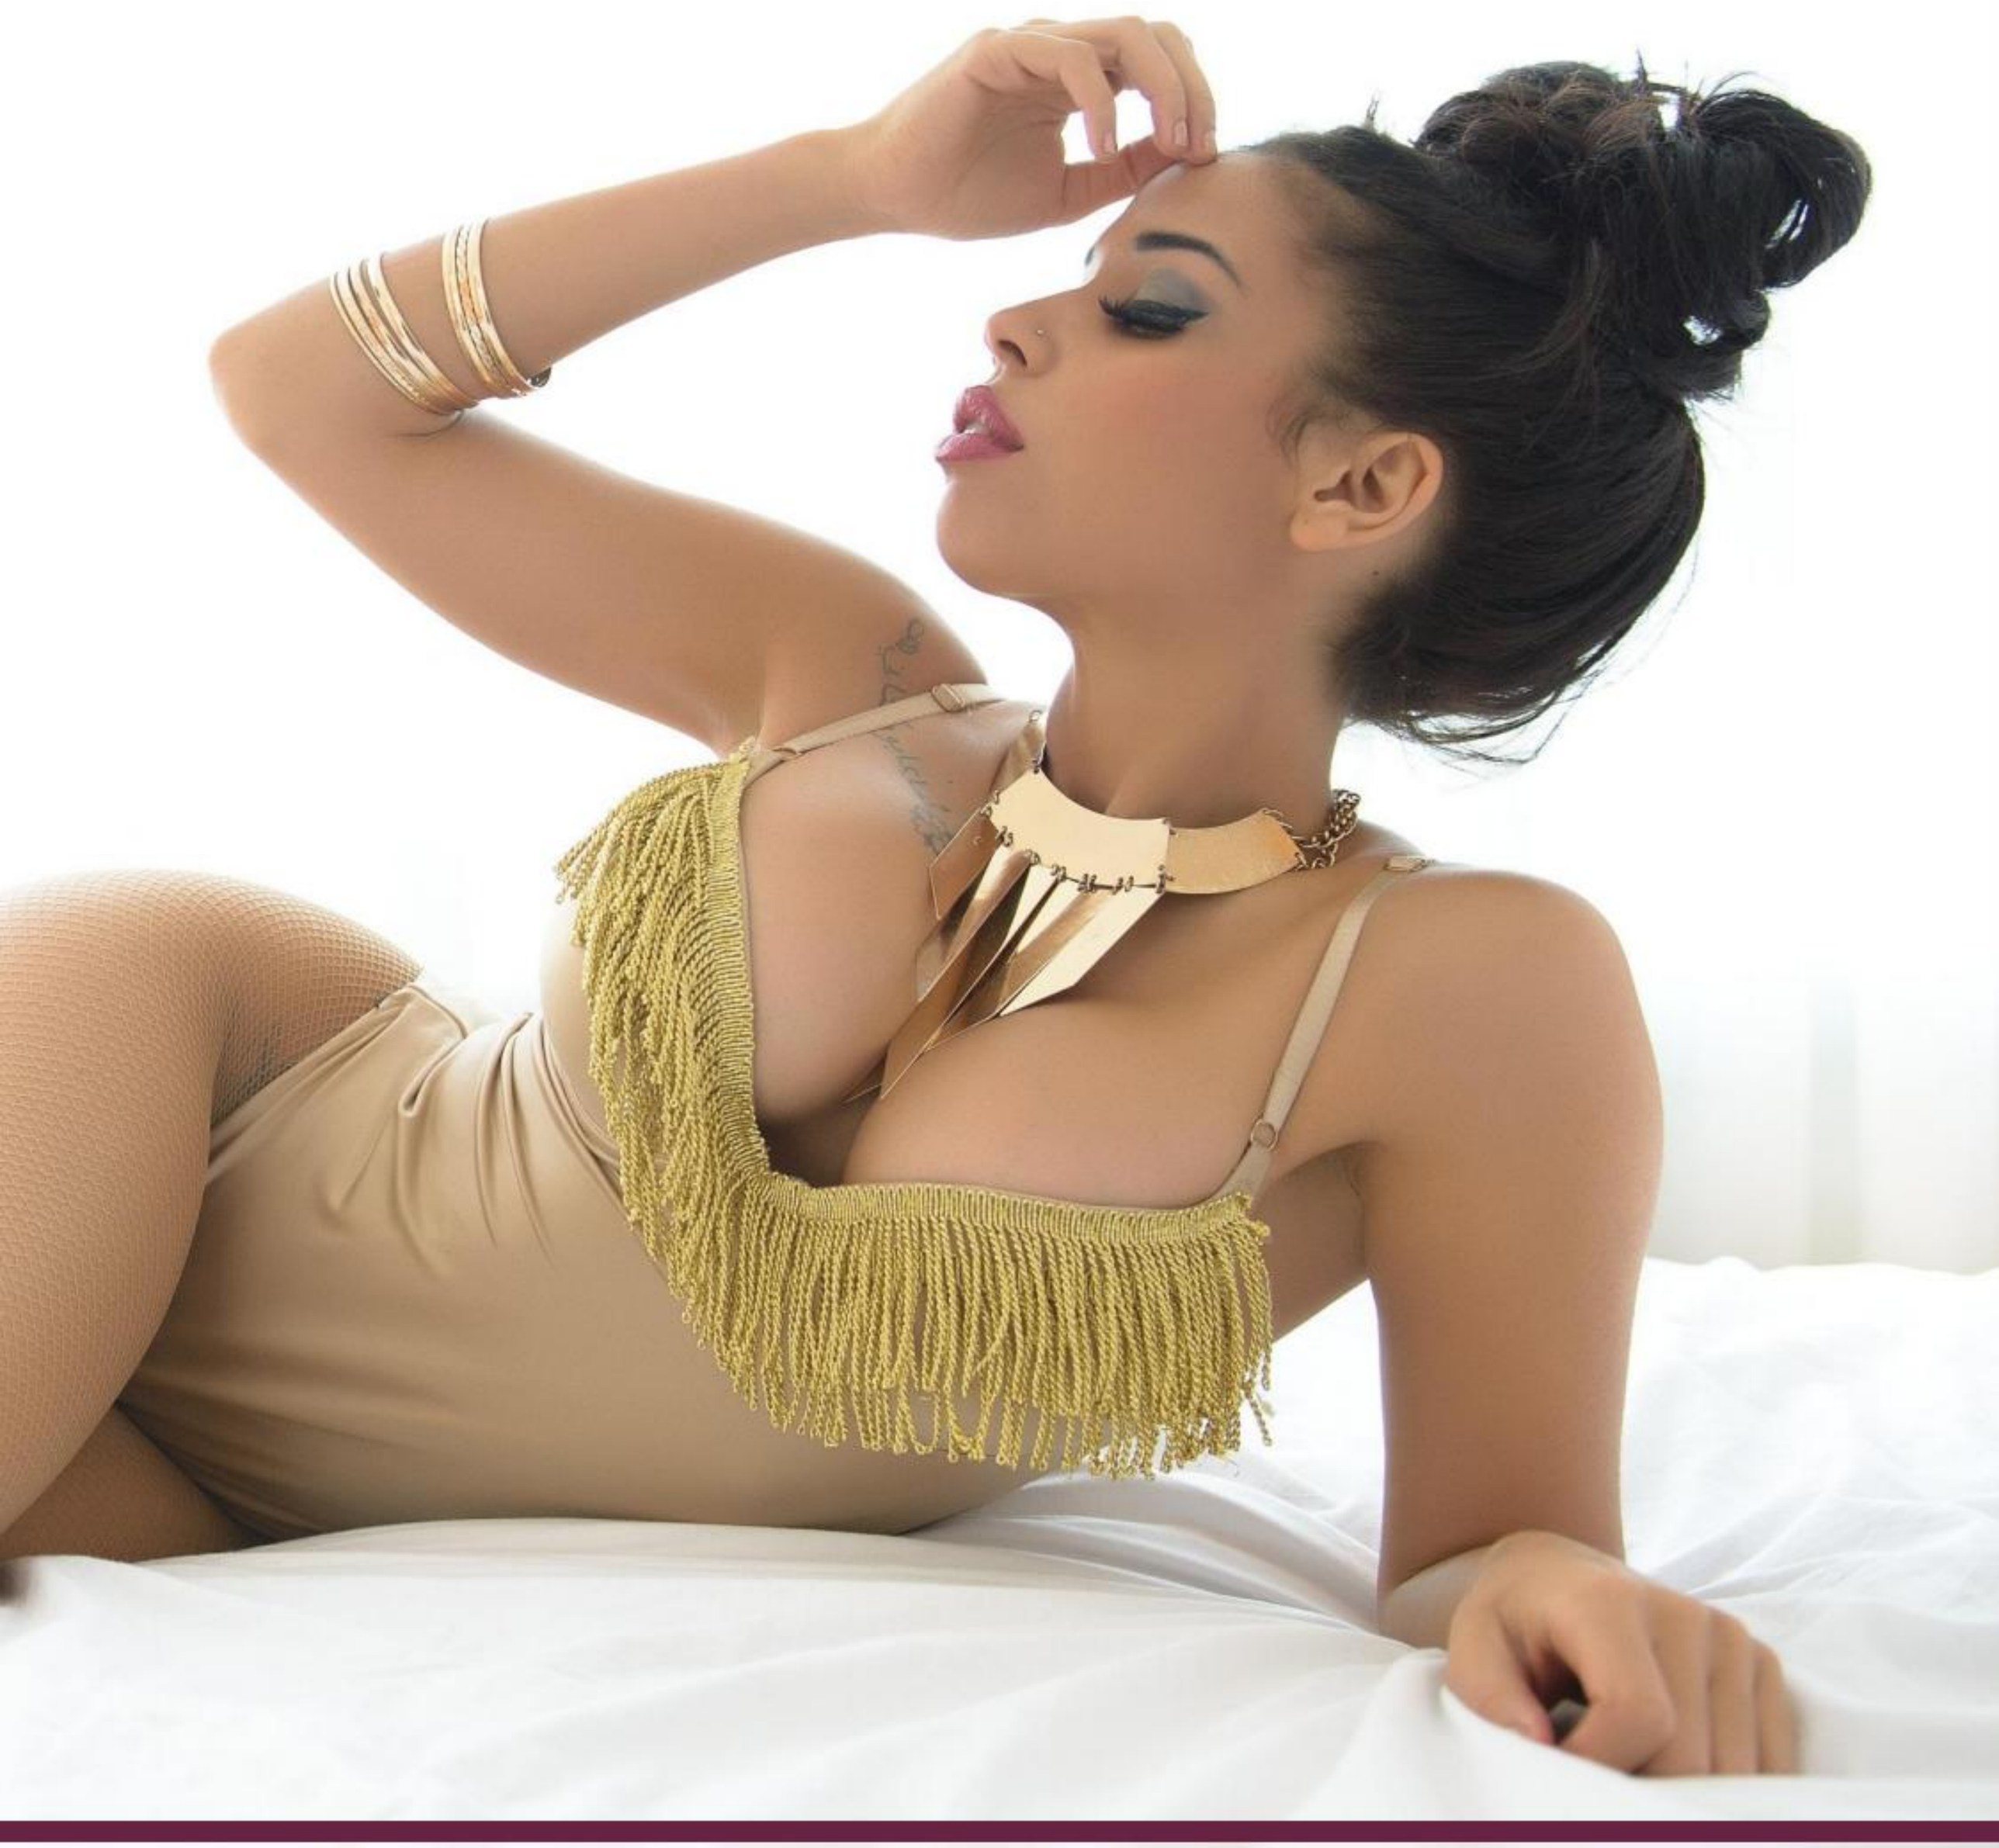
OMAIMA BOUKNANE

She is 19, was born in Madrid. Presently she is living in Barcelona, a city that she loves for its climate. As a good Scorpio, she is a very demanding and impulsive person.





The photos accompanying this report leave us breathless, you're gorgeous and we want to know you more intimately, your name and your beauty are very exotic, Where do they come from?

 Thank you, first of all congratulations for the great work you do... Well my name and beauty come from Morocco. Although I was born in Madrid.

What are your measurements?

I'm 1.66 and my measurements are 95-60-90.

We want to know a little of your personality, how do you define yourself?

I'm positive, nervous, mischievous, cheerful, a little apathetic... Simple and loyal (laughs)

And about your weaknesses, which do you think is the worst?

I don't know what to say. Maybe you would say I'm pretty bighead.

And your best quality?

I know how to make people feel comfortable when they are around me.

How did you get into the modeling world?

I set it as my goal, I started looking and learning about it. I was lucky and found a good photographer with whom I started working until today.

In your closet, which garment is an essential?

Good question, but in my closet all is essential.

You never leave home without...

My handbag. It's essential for me.

How do you like men?

I like someone who is a gentleman, kind, sincere, attentive, passionate, cheerful, positive, with clear ideas... I ask for few things as you see (laughs)

What are your weapons of seduction?

The eyes and lips. I think they are the most important things.

Photography: Oscar Grau, Image: David Mas Besa

When is about pleasures, Do you have a sin or vice that you can tell us about?
Pleasures... We can talk about sweets. Chocolate is the great sin... I have weakness.
About men, do you prefer hunt or be hunted?
Be hunted, of course; but I'm not a pushover.
And when it's about intimacy, do you have any rules?
No, everything is valid.
What is the erogenous zone that makes you go from 0 to 100 just by touching it?
The neck without any doubt.
What do you think is super sexy?
Undoubtedly, good lingerie, heels.

In your opinion, does size matter?
Yes, it does matter. Good or not. Who knows how to use doesn't need much.
With which famous would you spend a naughty night?
Honestly none.
What do you think is very sexy in another woman?
A good butt.
Wow, this interview has pushed up the temperature and more... to finish what is the best after sex?
It's not a big deal. The best after sex is a good squeeze and chocolate. And who doesn't eat chocolate.
I'm sending kisses to all my followers.

About your personality, how would you define yourself?
I define myself as a friendly, honest, extrovert and loving person. Also a tough cookie haha.
What are your measurements?
90-70-85
Is there any blemish that you hide?
Mmh... I don't find any on myself but I'm not really sure (laughs)

Although it's impossible to find at first glance, haha. What part of your body makes you feel prouder?
My buttcheeks, that's what I like the most indeed.
A beauty like you, I bet you catch glances in the street... Tell us a situation like these that may have happened to you.

Well, I was walking down the street when I noticed a kid with his eyes so lost in me that his friends left him behind.
What's your ideal type of man?
My ideal man must take good care of himself, be loving, attentive, detail-oriented and of course good in the bed.
What is the first thing you look in a man?
Biceps drives me crazy.

It's hard to conquer my heart, I'm very demanding but always worrying about me is a good way.
What would be your perfect night?
My perfect night would be a night of wild love and passion.

Your perfect clothes to seduce?
To seduce there is nothing better than a good, short dress and some good heels.
And for sleeping?
For sleeping a good baby-doll dress.
Any secret you can confess to us?
I'd rather keep it a secret, I'm a very naughty girl (laughs)

In love, do you like to take the reins or be carried away?
I like to take the reins.
And in bed?
In bed I like to be carried and surprised.
And to end this, what plans do you have for the future?
My plan is to continue and get to work with big photographers
Any coming project?
I have several and hope to continue like that.

¿HOW TO BE A GENTLEMAN IN THE BED?

By José Vidal Bol Bet

When developing the social network Facebook its maker had a great hit by integrating in such a natural way the option to share the content that users upload. In fact, it's a faithful digital mirror of what each one of us do when we like something, the need arises that the more people knows about it, the better. From a photo, to a gossip, to a phrase or to a song. We enjoy spreading all the information that goes through our hands.

In spite of her intimate and private character, the same happens in sex and, just like restaurants, movies or discos that we review; we also rate ourselves in our performance in the subject. In that sense, enjoying of a good sexual reputation is key to maintain your self-esteem at the highest possible. How to make it? It's enough by understanding that giving pleasure can be as gratifying as receiving it.

I'll try to suit you with an example that surely many will relate to. How many of you have been following a guy or girl trying to go out with him/her, and after long trying s/he finally accepts, so you decide to take him/her to a nice restaurant that several friends recommended. The place meets the expectation and everything went perfectly, food was top notch, wine did its effect and the talking never stopped. After dine, he or she asks a dessert and as if you want to share it, to which you don't object. By the way s/he's enjoying each bite, you assume that s/he was one of those persons that is eternally in a diet so it had been a long time since s/he had tasted chocolate.

Anyway, had one last spoonful and before attacking, he/she stopped respectful. You approach the plate to him/her and say, "All yours". She/he returns the attention with a smile that breaks you and didn't fade even when the fork was in the way to her/his mouth. If this scene had happened in a game, at that moment, would have appeared a sign over you giving 10,000 points.

That's the attitude you need to take to the bed. It's not about sacrifice or leaves on a side the personal satisfaction, but to produce a detail that can transform the experience of the other and passing from the good to the extraordinary.
Find that gesture isn't too complicated. Would be ideally that you can extract information from the couple with the same freshness and freedom as when you ask the time, but some people are uncomfortable and get embarrassed with the subject, plus you completely lost spontaneity.

So you just have to put some attention next time the desire possess you, studying the partner and, through the ancient technique of trial and error, discover those actions that drives them crazy. Look for areas most eroticising and be incisive on them during the act. You have to know how to interpret the expressions, groans and contortions as they occur, follow when they are genuine signs of pleasure and stop if they represent some kind of pain. We must also detect those efforts are not being effective and manifestations of boredom appear. In these cases we should not give up and as in football, if the tactic does not work, you have to propose a variant.
It seems that the carnal generosity is an altruistic act, when in reality it is not. In sex, as well as karma, do good, sooner or later it is returned.

THE PLEASURE IS AT HOME

One of the alternatives that you can choose if you're looking to put some "spice" to your sex life are toys. From dildos and vibrators to complex harnesses for both sexes, sex toys can carry you and your partner to other levels of pleasure. However, if you're not ready to invest money in them or the idea of buying makes you feel uncomfortable; you can make use household items to increase the temperature inside the room.

Spoons:
Put a pair of metal spoons in the refrigerator and leave on overnight. When they are frozen, use them to stimulate different areas of yours and your partner's body. Crotch, nipples, neck, abdominal area and the toes are a good starting point.

Electric brush:
In this case it is advisable to rehearse with a new one, or you make sure you clean it very well. You can use it to stimulate your clitoris and even as a minivibrator to the vaginal area.

Hair brush:
If you have a soft bristle brush, you can pass lightly over her buttocks and the back using a paddle to hit them gently.
Sexual dissatisfaction

Gloves:
Silicone, wool, leather; the more options you have, the greater the range of sensations available. To increase feelings can bandage and caress with different materials.

Tie:
If your partner wears executive, use his tie to lure him towards you and welcome him with a passionate kiss. You can also use it to tie your hands while you make love or as a blindfold for a deeper and mysterious feeling.

Belt:
If you are thinking of tying, then use a belt. Give him a couple of turns to tie both hands and use two belts to tie each hand to a bedpost.

Pillows:
One under your buttocks in the missionary position will allow deeper penetration. Embracing a lot of them in the doggie position will give you a completely different feeling.

A mint:
Put a mint in your mouth before performing oral sex and you'll be adding a tingling sensation.

Towel:
Put one around your hips when you're in the "doggie position" and you will give it a pleasant option control.
Now enjoy.

AROA CASTILLO

"I'm Aroa Castillo I have 22 years old, I was born in Zamora Chinchipe-Ecuador, I'm a student of Aesthetic Assistant. Libra sign and measurements 1.61 95-70-95. Because of my height I can't participate in beauty pageants and runways which is what I could like to do. Although the world of photography passionates me I had 3 years doing it from one day to another I was offered with a book which I still remember wearing bangs I was plump hahaha taking it seriously lost weight and started doing nude, is something that not everyone does. Of course I have no shame.

I don't know why people are shocked by seeing a naked woman; I call it "artistic nude" for which those that appreciates art knows it. I'm not in favor of the opinion of others, I both receive daily as many insults as compliments of my photos on social networks. I have always tried to fulfill my dreams and goals; one of them is being a model. I don't live of it, more than anything else is a hobby, with which has allowed me to meet people from different parts of Spain and socialize because even as I'm see in photos I'm shy and I can hardly open up to the world which is confused with "bland" but when I take confidence I can be very a nice person "that's what they told me."

I love the beach if it were for me I would disappear in the Caribbean being on a hammock and a mojito is my favorite drink. Another hobby is shopping and go out with friends to party. I take this opportunity to thank all the photographers who gave me the opportunity to work with them and those with whom I have pending I'm don't forget. I currently focused on being an actress filming the series "The priest and poison" (El cura y el veneno) my role as journalist you can see it on YouTube.

I made a small appearance in the second season of "no identity" (sin identidad) Spanish series, I was topless but having my long hair I put it forward and you won't see anything, so isn't to get excited (laughs). I have published in various magazines such as: LATIN AMERICAN MODEL, LAM GOLD, pages like Stars Ecuatorianas (Estrellas Ecuatorianas), Picate, Totoci Zaragoza among others. I have the support of my family which is the most important and I dedicate to them all my aspirations. The advice I give to all the girls who want to start in this world is that you have to be well informed; casting calls are not made by Skype, or other means. Not everyone are good for photos you can be cute but a smile in all the photos yet says nothing.

The face should express what you are trying to convey to those who look at the photos. I love kittens have no precise race. I'm a woman of few friends I have them counted on the fingers. Currently single in my plans don't ring bells and see wedding dresses, although twice I have caught the bouquet. I'm young and I want to see the world, travel make friends. Continue taking pictures. Future plans will come all at their own time; I have a lot of patience.
I greatly appreciate to be published and I hope you like my photos.

MARTA COSTA

Madrilenian with 23 years old
Model and graduated in Industrial Relations and Human Resources.
"It all started at 18 years old while working as a stewardess in various agencies and they offered me to be an advertising model, combining it with the university.
Since then I have had the opportunity to be the image of some well known firms as a major Spanish brand of fine jewelry, lingerie firm and a prestigious Spanish firm of wedding dresses.

A couple of years ago I was offered with the opportunity to introduce myself to a known model agency through which had passed characters and models of recognized standing and since then I combine my activity as an advertising model with my work in a foundation for the promotion of employment, performing conferences and symposia"
